The eleventh annual musical festival of the Wednesday Club will be held April 25th and 26th in the Academy of Music. At a meeting of the board of gover nors of the club, held last night at the Commonwealth Club, the dates were fixed and the selection of artists was Mr. Walter C. Mercer was appointed general manager of the festival The board of governors is composed of Messrs, George W. Stevens, S. W. Travers, E. A. Hoen, Henry S. Hutzler, P. H. Mayo, J. Stewart Bryan, E. C. Mayo Henry L. Cabell, F. Sitterding, L. Z. Morris, Henry T. Meloncy W. D. Duke Mercer, Eugene Jones, Lil-T. Myers, Selden Walke, R. R.

A Brilliant List.

The announcement of the board this year, now first made, contains a list of brilliant and well known artists, the names of many of whom are familiar here. The Boston Festival Orchestra will be engaged, and with it the following solo artists:

Miss Anlia Rio, soprano.

Mrs, Shotwell-Piper, soprano.

Mme, Louise Homer, mezzo-soprano contraito.

Mrs. Shotwell-Tiper, septano.

Mme. Louise Homer. mezzo-seprano contraito.

Mrs. Florence Mulford, contratto.

Mrs. Bertha Cushing Child, alto.

Sig. Jacques Bars, tonor.

Mr. Holmes Cowper, tenor.

Sig. Emilio de Gogorza, baritone,

Mr. Frederick Martin, basso.

The character of the music to be rendered requires this great variety of artists, and they have been selected with the view of their adaptation.

Handel's great and incomparable oratorio, "The Messiah," will be sung in fall for the first time in Richmond. Sejections from Verdi's ever popular opern, "Alda," requiring five soloists, so arranged, as Mr. Mollenhauer expresses it, as will "give you a tremendously effective and brilliant hour," will be given. The Children's Chorns will, besides other nopular choruses, sing the "Fair Scene," from Martha, assisted by the orchestra, and quartette of soloists, including some of the most distinguished artists.

WHO THEY ARE.

WHO THEY ARE. WHO THEY ARE.

Miss Rio has distinguished herself in her interpretation of the seprano role in "The Messiah" since her appearance here last year, singing the entire work without the use of the vocal score. She is regarded as a great oratorio singer.

of elegant stage presence, who has role in "Alda."

Holmes Cowper, of Chleage, tenor, recently sung that part in "The Messiah" at Boston with great satisfaction; also highly recommended by Mr. Stewart. Sig. de Gogoras was there last year, and acquitted himself so handsomely that a universal request was made for his return. Many competent judges prechim abreast, if not ahead of, the great baritone, Campanari.
